- to attend the first class of the course as during it professors provide general information about the course, assessment rules, sometimes they change classrooms and lecture times, so all these details are confirmed during the first class;
- warn professors in advance if you will not be able to sit the exams or present assignments during the official exam session in January (Autumn semester) or June (Spring semester).

Frequently Asked Questions

- Where will the class take place?

First of all, please check the timetable on the internet: <https://www.vu.lt/en/studies/exchange-students/timetable>

If you fail to find the place of the course, please try to seek for help of other classmates/mentors/friends. If you still cannot find the room where the lecture is planned, please come to the faculty coordinators. In order to fasten the processes, please make it sure you have the title of the course and the name of the professor with you.

- How to register for Bachelor courses?

In order to successfully register at the course students need to get the lecturer's signature on the Registration Form during the first lecture (the form is provided by the International Relations Office).

- How to register for Master courses?

There is a limited number of students who can attend the courses, therefore registration is mandatory. Please visit Gintarė in Room 409 from 3 p.m. till 4.30 p.m.

Please keep it in mind that at FEBA all Master courses are intensive and they are organized in modules. Usually, one course lasts for one month and finishes with exam. If the professor is VERY VERY Important: Only Master students can attend Master level courses. However, if there is such a need and your home University approves of, Master students are allowed to choose Bachelor level courses (BUT not vice versa).
