There are professional lecturers and professors, efficient and patient staff and kind colleagues in this university. I didn't have any knowledge background of econometrics in my bachelor's study. It's no doubt that studying in Economic Analysis programme was a huge challenge for me. Thanks to the specific lectures of professors, I have a good grasp of the specialized knowledge and skills in econometrics field. Besides, the warm help of my colleagues and timely information from coordinator always help me get rid of dilemma. This 1.5 years journey in Vilnius university is highly meaningful for my whole life.
